

Leadership Theories

Course Syllabus

Course Description

This course is designed to explore ethical behavior and leadership principles to refine critical thinking and decision-making skills. Participants will examine different types of leadership interactions and how they can be influential to individual relationships. Participants will also have the opportunity to explore the process of ethical decision-making as future leaders in education. By understanding leadership principles and ethical behaviors, teachers can build and maintain stronger relationships with their students by determining the best practices of leaders in education and how they make ethical decisions. Educators can also reflect on personal, social, and ethical behaviors to reinforce positive ethical decisions.
