Opportunity for Adjunct Clinical Faculty

Position

The College of Nursing is currently inviting applications for adjunct clinical faculty positions. The Adjunct Clinical Faculty role is responsible for providing instruction, supervising, and evaluating student performance in various clinical settings throughout the state of Idaho. Areas of need are listed below:

- Accelerated BSN Adjuncts - Meridian/Boise, Idaho
- Traditional RN Adjuncts - Various locations across Southeast Idaho
- Psychmental Health NP Adjuncts - Meridian/Boise areas & Southeast Idaho

Qualifications

Qualified applicants must have at least two years of clinical experience, be BSN-prepared, and must hold an active, unencumbered license as an RN in the state of Idaho. A MSN with teaching experience is preferred. PMHNP certification/licensure for DNP program. Most importantly, a passion for teaching caring and compassionate nursing students.

Contact:
Dr. Vernon Kubiak, Associate Director of Undergraduate Programs at kubivern@isu.edu.
Dr. Karen Neill, Interim Dean, neilkare@isu.edu.
Idaho State University
College of Nursing
Position Description
Adjunct Clinical Faculty

Suggested Title: Adjunct Clinical Faculty, Nursing

Department / College: College of Nursing, Nursing Program, Southeastern Idaho. Clinical track. Contracts are developed on a semester-to-semester basis.

Primary Purpose: To provide clinical instruction for the traditional nursing students. The emphasis is on teaching in a clinical setting and collaborating with the faculty in the nursing program.

Key Responsibilities:
Adjunct faculty work under close supervision of the primary faculty assigned to the course and under the direction of the Associate Director of Undergraduate Studies nursing program.
Adjunct faculty have the responsibility to provide clinical, classroom, and online instruction in clinical and classroom settings under the supervision of faculty.

1. Clinical instruction consists of supervising a group of nursing students in clinical learning sites, and provision of classroom, clinical and online instruction. (80%)
2. Course preparation, assignment grading, and course communication using the ISU learning platform(s) will be required.

Reports to: Dr. Vernon Kubiak, Associate Director of Undergraduate Studies, Nursing Program

Supervises: NA

Suggested Minimum Qualifications:
Clinical Adjunct Faculty
- MS in Nursing is preferred
- BS in Nursing / minimum qualification
  - Minimum two years of clinical experience
  - Active, unencumbered License as an RN in the State of Idaho
  - Passion for teaching caring and compassionate nursing students
  - Demonstrated ability to teach

Term of employment (Semester): Temporary Part-Time Maximum 19 hours per week, no benefits

Offers of employment may be conditional pending successful completion of a criminal background investigation.

About Idaho State University:

Idaho State University (ISU) combines exceptional academics amidst the grand natural beauty of the West. ISU faculty and students are leading the way in cutting-edge research and innovative solutions in the areas of energy, health professions, nuclear research, teaching, humanities, engineering, performing and visual arts, technology, biological sciences, pharmacy, and business. ISU is the state's designated lead institution in health professions and medical education.

Idaho State University, a Carnegie-classified doctoral research and teaching institution founded in 1901, serves a diverse population by attracting students from around the world to its Idaho campuses. At the main campus in Pocatello, and at Meridian, Idaho Falls, and Twin Falls sites, ISU offers access to high-quality education in more than 280 programs. Over 12,000 students attend ISU.

Idaho State University is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer. We have an institution-wide commitment to inclusion and diversity and encourage all qualified individuals to apply. Veterans' preference.
Upon request, reasonable accommodations in the application process will be provided to individuals with disabilities.