

ISU University Honors Program Student-Initiated Honors Course Contract

PROCESS CHECKLIST

The Student-Initiated Honors Course Contract is now an online form. This checklist should be completed and used to obtain the information needed to complete the online form.

- Introduce yourself as a University Honors Program student to the instructor of the course you would like to contract.
- Arrange the terms of your contract with your instructor and provide the information below.
- Course Syllabus. You will need to upload a file with this information.
- Specify how the Honors course requirements will differ from the general course requirements. These requirements may include but are not limited to: independent research, collaborative projects, service learning, outreach programming, leadership training, alternative media development, professional or technical applications, student teaching and mentoring, and the enhancement of critical, synthetic, comparative, interdisciplinary, or creative thinking. You will need to upload a file with this information.
- Provide a description of alternative assignments, testing, or performance criteria. Note that Honors options should focus on different or alternative work, not simply “extra” work. (Note: an Honors contract does not excuse you from any of the normal assignments or expectations of the course.). You will need to upload a file with this information.
- Specify how these Honors assignments will be integrated into the final grade. You will need to upload a file with this information.
- Obtain your instructor’s name and email.
- Obtain your instructor’s department chair name and email.
- Complete the online Honors Contract Course form located on the UHP website at this address.

<https://isu.edu/honors/current-students/honors-curriculum-and-courses/contract-courses/>

ALL Honors Course Contracts are due on the third Friday of the semester which you will be registered in the course.